Dear Claimant,

We received the Claim Form you submitted in connection with Precision Associates Inc., et al. v. Panalpina World Transport (Holding) Ltd., et al., also known as the Freight Forwarders Class Action Settlement. After reviewing your claim, we have determined that additional information is required to complete our review and audit of your claimed purchases and shipments.

Please indicate whether you have included “express” shipments as part of your claim.

- YES, I included “express” shipments as part of my claim.
- NO, I did not include “express” shipments as part of my claim.

If you answered yes to the above question, please answer the following questions below by identifying what percentage of your claimed purchases relates to express shipments and not to purchases of Freight Forwarding Services. “Freight Forwarding Services” means freight forwarding, transportation, or logistics services for shipments, including services relating to the organization or transportation of items via air and ocean, which may include ancillary rail and truck services, both nationally and internationally, as well as related activities such as customs clearance, warehousing, and ground services.

Shipments from the following services/companies are likely to be express:

- a. DHL Express
- b. DHL Worldwide Express
- c. DHL Global Mail
- d. Airborne Express

Any express shipments you included in your Claim Form from these services/companies should be accounted for in your responses below.

Please complete the following sections, if applicable, with confirmed figures or your best estimate:

1. Percentage of any claimed DHL “express” shipments included in Schedule B of your claim:

--	--	--

2. Percentage of any claimed DHL shipments using “express” shipments included in response to Question 1.a of your claim:
