[CLAIMANT],

We have reviewed our records for this claim, including [CLAIMANT]'s response to our Affidavit Request letter. Per [CLAIMANT]'s affidavit statement, transactions were identified programmatically from a Microsoft Access database and source data is available for independent audit.

[CLAIMANT]'s claim has been selected for further review based on audits performed in preparation for disbursement and comparison with claims from similarly large companies. Upon review of [CLAIMANT]'s claim we note:

- [CLAIMANT]'s Schedule B total of $XX,XXX,XXX,XXX.XX in claimed freight forwarding costs represents XX.X% of all Schedule B responses.

We have tried to reach out by email to XXX@XX.com, as our contact of record, on February 24, 2017, March 21, 2017 and March 28, 2017 and are sending this final letter regarding [CLAIMANT]'s claim filed on XX/XX/XXXX.

We request additional documentation to support or revise the claim amount, above, by April 14, 2017. Please note that failure to sufficiently respond will result in reduction or denial of your claim.

Please let me know if you would like to schedule a call to discuss. I can be reached at kshenandore@epiqsystems.com or by phone at 503-350-5885.

Thank you for your efforts as we work toward a fair and accurate award distribution.

Sincerely,

Kevin Skenandore
