OVERVIEW OF EPIQ'S RESPONSIBILITIES IN THIS CASE

5. Epiq's responsibilities in connection with these settlements include:

(a) printing the Court-approved Notice to be mailed to potential Class Members;

(b) searching the National Change of Address ("NCOA") database for a current address for each potential Class Member;

On March 21, 2013, Epiq recorded and launched its IVR in four languages on the following dedicated toll-free phone number for this matter: (877) 276-7340; and

(e) establishing and maintaining an informational website, which provides potential Class Members access to detailed settlement information, including, but not limited to, access to settlement and Court documents, a summary of important dates and deadlines, answers to frequently asked questions and contact information for the Settlement Administrator. Important portions of the website have been translated into four languages (English, Japanese, Simplified Chinese and Traditional Chinese). staffed to handle email and correspondence in the four languages. On March 21, 2013, Epiq launched the informational website at www.freightforwardcase.com.

MAILING OF THE NOTICE AND CLAIM FORM

6. Epiq is responsible for causing the Notice Packet to be mailed to the last known address of each reasonably identifiable potential Class Member. The last known addresses of potential Class Members were derived from Defendants' purchasing data and provided to Plaintiffs and Epiq pursuant to settlement agreements and orders of the Court. Between March 21 and March 29, 2013, Epiq mailed 2,323,671 Notice Packets to all potential Class Members.

7. Of these 2,323,671 initial Notice Packets, 481,282 were returned as "undeliverable" by the U.S. Postal Service. Epiq has received alternative address information and re-mailed the Notice Packets for 154,394 of these class members.

OBJECTION, EXCLUSION REQUESTS AND CLAIM FORMS

8. The Notice Packet initially mailed to the class members provided a deadline of June 25, 2013 for class members to exclude themselves from the settlement by mailing a timely and complete request for exclusion. As of July 26, 2013, Epiq received 183 requests for exclusion, some of which are duplicates.

Important portions of the website have been translated into four languages (English, Japanese, Simplified Chinese and Traditional Chinese). In addition, Epiq is staffed to handle email and correspondence in the four languages. The website also includes a list of the key deadlines and dates. As of July 19, 2013, Epiq has received 2,076,043 hits to the website. The website will remain in service through the end of the settlement administration, and will be updated as necessary.

12. The toll-free telephone line, Toll-Free 1-877-276-7340 and International (Toll) 1-503-520-4400, is a 24-hour automated service that provides information regarding the settlement and answers to frequently asked questions as well as providing callers with the option to request that a claim package, which includes a claim form and a long form notice, be mailed to them. The toll-free line also provided callers with an option to leave a message for the Administrator. As of July 19, 2013, Epiq has received 7,842 calls to the telephone line and 2,851 outbound callbacks have been placed.
